

Periodontal Referrals

Woodford Dental Care is pleased to be able to offer the services of periodontist Dr Jason Lim.

Jason qualified from King's College London Dental Institute with Honours, after which he completed two years of foundation training both in general practice and as a Senior House Officer in Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery in Portsmouth. Following this he returned to general practice in Essex before starting specialty training.

Jason has completed the full-time specialty training programme in Periodontology at the Eastman Dental Institute, qualifying with Distinction. During this time, he presented his research and clinical cases at several national and international conferences.

In addition to working in practice, Jason is also part of the teaching faculty at the Eastman Dental Institute in the Unit of Periodontology.
